

Walter Winchell vs. Martin Dies

Expert Smearers Slay Each Other LEGISLATIVE INQUISITION vs. FREE SPEECH

Sponsored by the Andrew Jergens Co., Walter Winchell and Martin Dies went on the air and proved to a listening, discerning, audience that they are both demagogues of the first water. Each proved the other an unscrupulous character who will not shrink from character assassination if it suits their particular purpose and each made his point.

Walter Winchell did a marvelous job in defense of the freedom of speech and press. Said he: "The Constitution of the United States not only provides for the three great arms of our Government. The Constitution's heart is that it limits the powers of that Government. And its soul (its Bill of Rights) is that it protects the citizen who disagrees with the men who run that very government it establishes. The history of liberty is the history of resistance to irresponsible men who happen to be armed with the powers of Government."

But Walter Winchell, character assassin and scoundrel that he is, has no respect for the Constitution. This inveterate blackguard shows his contempt for the Constitution in at least a dozen instances in every one of his broadcasts and newspaper articles. What he claims for himself, immunity to denounce those he considers irresponsible, while occupying Government offices, that very thing he denies to those citizens who denounce his own pet Newdeal gang. Winchell proclaims the false doctrine of dictatorship, whenever he demands worship of and obedience to "the Commander-in-Chief". The President is not the Commander-in-Chief of the civilian population, but the servant and hired hand. A civilian, not in government employ, ranks the executive, for the civilian is THE SOVEREIGN who hired the Executive to serve him. Winchell's type of patriotism is one of the groveling lickspittle who bows to the gang in power and denounces as "seditionists" anyone who exposes their criminal disregard for and violation of the Constitution. You must not gore Winchell's ox, but he has a constitutional right to gore yours.

Martin Dies proved his point, too. He said: "Now I warn you that there is in this country a carefully organized and integrated and dangerously intelligent and aggressive movement to undermine the authority and destroy the prestige of Congress in the interest of setting up an allpowerful and central executive". And he charged Winchell with being a tool of this "smear-bund".

But as Dies "cleared" himself of the "innuendos" that he was "protecting" the 30 recently indicted of "sedition" in Washington, Dies himself, by innuendo, smeared them with being guilty, before being tried and he added that 75% of the evidence to be used in these trials was supplied by his committee. In attacking Winchell's method of smearing he said: "First they find an offender who is really guilty of sedition. Then, without charging you with that offense, they merely mention your name repeatedly in connection with his. They identify you with his guilt by indirection. Recently the Government indicted 30 people for sedition..."

And the "Government" used exactly the method described by Dies. It "found an offender" who has been previously "convicted" by a hysterical jury of "sedition" and linked all the "anti-Semites" it wanted to silence or terrorize to the same charge of "conspiracy". Then Winchell, the "Government" and Dies broadcast their names as if they were convicted and found guilty by due process of law, by an impartial judge and jury. All are smeared as seditionists merely because a Grand Jury in Washington, D. C. yielded to political pressure exerted by "The White House" demanding such a "smear indictment" and, if possible, a smear trial.

The result of the Winchell-Dies radio "debate" proves that there is a smear-bund who uses both Winchell and Dies as their tools to terrorize anyone who dares lift his voice against usurpation of powers by individuals in Government positions, especially, if they be Jewish. "Anti-Semitism" is the real crime in the U. S. A. today, the crime behind all these "mass indictments" and trials for sedition. To speak your mind about a Jew who uses his Government office to abuse his powers, is treason, in fact, if not in law, according to the smear-bund.

LEGISLATIVE SMEAR COMMITTEES

There is one thing I would like to see come out of this duel between Winchell and Dies. Namely that legislative committees be compelled by law to conduct their inquisitorial activities according to court procedure, with due regard for the rights of those whom they are exposing to public view.

In the conduct of THE BROOM the columns of our paper are always open to those of whom we write, to come back fully, and present their side. When we discuss the conduct of others we take pains to quote them extensively, that their words may not appear out of context. Where this is not possible, we either refrain from criticism or give as close an outline of the context as we possibly can so that both sides have a fair hearing before the public.

In the conduct of inquisitorial committees too often this regard for the truth is entirely ignored, and, too often, deliberately ignored. Old man Townsend refused to answer onesided questions that misrepresented him and his work and was sent to jail for contempt, from which the President pardoned him as a political vote-getting measure. But Winchell is right, one hundred percent, when he says: "But the power of Congress to subpoena is not the right of an individual Congressman to hold court... The founders of our country did not stop after creating Congress and a Supreme Court. They wanted a nation of free people—not a government by political police over groveling slaves. And so they armed every citizen. Yes, armed him, against his Government with a Bill of Rights! They gave it to him absolutely and they gave it to him independently. An American's right to be a man depends on no branch of our Government; neither does his right to earn a living—because the Constitution also guarantees due process of law."

"It is often the thankless and ironical duty of a conscientious citizen to warn those with whom he disagrees most, of their rights in a general principle. A constitution which fails to protect all protects none!"

Walter Winchell, the filthy blackguard, the contemptuous blackmailer, rises to heights of divine truth when he has to defend his right to speak out. And with Voltaire, even though it is the despicable Winchell who says it, I uphold his right to say it, and for once, divine Providence uses this arch-smearer, and his vast audience, to proclaim the fundamentals of the American form of Government which Winchell outrages in everyone of his keyhole peep-talks, save the memorable one, in which he had to defend the Constitution to defend himself.

The very thing he says about the right of a man to earn his living not depending on any branch of the Government, is the sovereign principle of American citizenship which I upheld in my arguments, when I stood before the Supreme Court of California and expounded the fundamental differences between a Socialistic form of government, the Fascist-Soviet-Monarchistic-feudal type, and our American form. Thus I branded the excise taxes unconstitutional because the Government denies the sovereign right of the free man to earn a living, annuls his freedom economically and politically and sells it back to him as a "privilege to engage in business" at so much per, collecting a rake-off in the form of a gross percentage salestax, manufacturer's tax, processing tax, income tax, etc. And now Winchell, of all men, comes and re-iterates this truth of the freedom of man to earn a living as a free right, not dependent upon any branch of the Government.

And concerning the inquisitorial proceedings of legislative committees Walter Winchell has done his country an inestimable service, a service every free man values when he said: "I will gladly appear before any... constitutional authority (meaning the Dies' committee), and here and now freely waive all immunity. I demand only two rights, those guaranteed to every American citizen: (1) That I have the right of cross-examination; and (2) that the public be present."

Winchell stated the case against legislative committees to perfection. The Jack Tenney committee, in California, demonstrated the power and technique used to smear good Americans by asking one-sided questions, by not permitting cross-examination of smear witnesses. Congressional committees continually are guilty of the same technique.

Now that Winchell has stated his position in such masterly fashion when it came to save his own hide, how wonderful would it be if he lived up to his own professed rights. Suppose every week, when he smears me and others, he were to concede me the right to cross examine him on the air in the presence of the public and expose him for the dastardly liar and criminal libeler he is.

PERSONAL MEETING

After the broadcasts, Dies and Winchell met with newspapermen to deliver copies of their speeches.

It apparently was the first time the two had met.

As they shook hands, Winchell asked: "When are you going to subpoena me, Congressman?"

Dies answered, "We'll get around to you in good time."

Protecting the Right to Work

Petitions for a California constitutional amendment to curb labor racketeering are being circulated for signatures, after having been titled by the Attorney General.

"SECTION 1-A. Every person has the right to work, and to seek, obtain and hold employment, without interference with or impairment or abridgment of said right because he does or does not belong to or pay money to a labor organization."

"Anything done or threatened to be done which interferes with, impairs or abridges, or which is intended to interfere with, impair or abridge said right, is unlawful. Relief against or on account of anything so done or threatened to be done shall be granted in a civil action, legal or equitable, initiated in the Superior Court of any County in which anything so done or threatened to be done shall occur, upon the complaint of any person or upon complaint of the District Attorney of such County."

"The term 'labor organization' means any organization of any kind, or any agency or employee representation, committee or plan, which exists for the purpose, in whole or in part, of dealing with employers concerning grievances, labor disputes, rates of pay, hours of employment or conditions of work."

"This section is self-executing and shall supersede all provisions in conflict therewith; legislation may be enacted to facilitate its operation but no law shall limit or restrict the provisions hereof."

City Sued to Remove Parking Meters PETITION FILED IN SUPERIOR COURT TO BE HEARD BY JUDGE HAINES

The Editor of THE BROOM, acting as his own attorney, filed on March 27 a petition in the Superior Court for an order against the City of San Diego, the Mayor, City Council and Manager, to appear in court and show cause why they should not remove the parking meters from the streets on the grounds that they are illegally installed and operated, and the funds derived therefrom are illegally used, as well as collected.

The City Attorney has ten days in which to answer. He stated that he would prepare a demurrer.

The petition was originally presented to Presiding Judge Jake Weinberger who assigned it

"Isn't it queer... that God still rules supreme?"

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States".

to Department No. 2, Judge C. C. Haines, for hearing.

In his petition the Editor alleges that the title in the parking meter ordinance does not clearly express the subject covered, in violation of the provisions of the charter, since it deals with parking of vehicles and not with traffic. Parked vehicles have been taken out of traffic. Neither does it state that the driver of the vehicle is to get something in return for the collection of his money.

That the "Parking Meter Fund" is being illegally collected and expended for purposes not specified in the ordinance. That the city is doing commercial business by renting out the streets owned by the taxpayers and paid for by the annual taxes for maintenance and policing of traffic.

That the meters unlawfully exact contributions without delivering the service indicated on its advertisements. That the city is closing certain portions of the streets to public use after the public has already paid for its use in the annual tax.

Judge Removes Last Barrier To Sedition Trial

WASHINGTON— Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher, of the Federal Court for the District of Columbia, removed the last barrier to the trial on April 17, of Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling and 29 others charged with conspiring to aid in the establishment of a Nazi form of government in the United States.

In a brief, blanket order, Judge Eicher denied and overruled:

1. All demurrers filed or argued.
2. All motions to quash.

Denies Added Particulars

3. All motions for bills of particulars, or for more specific bills of particulars than the bill of particulars filed by the Government under date of March 1.
4. All motions filed or argued to strike the bill of particulars furnished by the Government.
5. All motions for continuance for the duration of the war.
6. All motions for severance.
7. Motions for inspection of the Grand Jury minutes.
8. All pleas in abatement.
9. "Any and all other motions or pleas not specifically enumerated herein and filed by or in behalf of any of the defendants."

Attorneys May Quit

Defense attorneys charged that Judge Eicher's order denies a fair trial to the defendants. It was learned that some of the Washington attorneys appointed by Judge Eicher to represent various of the defendants who claimed they did not have sufficient funds to provide their own defense have considered asking Judge Eicher to relieve them of their duties.

Frank H. Myers, who was appointed to represent defendants Charles B. Hudson and William Robert Lyman jr., told the court while arguing for additional particulars that he felt the appointed attorneys were not getting the cooperation they should expect from the judge.

Three Weeks Preparation

"You are asking defense counsel to come into this case and defend these clients to see that they get a fair trial," Myers asserted. "Everything is being done to prevent that. I fear I'm going to have to stand up in the middle of the trial and tell you that I cannot defend these defendants."

Judge Eicher's order, dated March 24, allowed the defendants only three weeks and one day to prepare for trial. E. Hilton Jackson, representing defendant Gerald B. Winrod, in arguing for some additional time to prepare, declared that it would be "physically impossible" for him and other defense attorneys to go to trial April 17, and provide the kind of defense the defendants have the right to expect.

FRED de ARYAN, Owner
 C. LEON de ARYAN, Editor

Declared a legal newspaper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, in California, by Superior Court Order, January 15, 1932.

Entered as second class matter March 27, 1931, at the postoffice of San Diego, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

A Republican newspaper, standing for a clean sweep of the Augean stables. Fearless fighter for a truthful, just, vigilant and tolerant nationalism. Lover of the Constitution and the Founding Fathers. Defender of free speech and free press, as the foundation stones of the republican form of government. Opponent of injustice, tyranny and oppression, and of all "isms" except Americanism.

Visiting in the Back Country

When election time comes along, the newspaperman must be up on his toes. I take my "Gallup polls" in my own way and get the pulse of the people quite accurately. There are some parts of the county where I had not been before at all, in others I have old subscribers, old as subscribers, but young in age. So I filled up the gas tank last week and started out.

On the way to Escondido I stopped in Mission Valley for various errands and then looked over the ground in Escondido. New impressions everywhere. Had not been there for three years and that's lots of time for great changes in details, even though the landscape is the same. Then on to Vista, Fallbrook, Oceanside, Carlsbad, Del Mar and back to San Diego. I took two days for this survey, meeting old and new friends and getting acquainted all over again, with myself, and with others.

Old man Remsburg, of the Vista Press, also impressed me in a new way. He has had a chance to see things develop in this nation, and in the newspaper and business world. He has been approached by friend and foe, of mine, and heard pro and con, and knowing me, had a chance to think and weigh. Thus our acquaintance produced new impressions, too. The country and nation is at the cross-roads.

On the second day I had lunch at the cafeteria of the Rosicrucian Fellowship and also called on Mrs. Heindel. She has been through the mill, too, so we are both veterans of the battle for truth. We exchanged impressions and related experiences, and while the picture changes, the theme is still the same, as in the days of the Saviour; the same forces are arrayed; the same principles at stake.

One of the most remarkable encounters was with a young grandmother, an esoteric student of long standing who has toured the states, lived life in the raw and knows the world as it is. She is old in experience and wise with the wisdom of life itself; fearless and frank, delightfully frank and open; no guile about her and no hesitancy. Her youthful appearance belies her age and she still is in the grip of Wanderlust. The stories that attracted her most in THE BROOM were about Marion Fay. Of course, she sides with Marion against me, and I am tickled pink. Here I had the chance to study my own creation, see the reflex of my words in this woman's mind and soul. And then I realized why I had been urged, from within, to keep on writing those stories to the end; for the end was to reach this woman who gave me the solution to the riddle of Marion. She took me up on a hill where we could see the whole country behind Oceanside, the river, the valley, the ocean and the snow capped mountains. The most gorgeous sunny day and, sitting in her car, viewing the beauty of the world that is, we exchanged impressions and related experiences.

The Masters behind the scenes, who direct the lives of mortals, deserve praise, and am I delighted that I followed the cues, no matter how queer and absurd they appear at times. Not only did I profit immediately from the wealth of wisdom of this woman, but being trained to automatically record every smallest impression, action, word and thought, so that later on, at leisure, I can listen to the records play the scenes over and over again, the revelation of the life and being of my companion sheds new light upon problems which necessitate deep study to be correctly understood.

And so old chapters are closed, new chapters begin, and we realize the wondrous Providence of the Father who loves and guides us aright. When all seems lost, when all is confused, simply realize that it is darkest before dawn. God is always with us, in us and in this Faith we conquer the world and the enemies who are so smart, that they outsmart themselves.

Thus my trip into the back country repaid itself a million times and now in the morning, when I awaken from sleep, the records are playing and I see the world in a new light. What a difference it makes when you can exchange impressions with another one who dared live fearlessly.

FEDERAL CITY

Senator Johnson of Colorado

POWER OF LOVE, MATURE FATHERS

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, March 27—Our "Federal City" is applauding the great speech of Senator Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado in Chicago recently.

It may give him a place in history.

He is a real "Democrat", which is the exact opposite of a "New Dealer". When a New Dealer claims to be a Democrat, it is as though he said, "I am an atheist and a Christian".

Johnson is also a real "statesman", because he places the good of his country ahead of his party, while "politicians" (such as New Dealers, Fascists and Communists) always place the good of their party first.

This great Senator observes with horror the decline of liberty under the New Deal oligarchy. He regards Roosevelt's decision in 1940 to seek a third term as "the greatest tragedy of American political history". It has been a steady march toward "One Man Government".

There is now on foot and out in the open a movement to discredit the Congress of the people, reduce it to impotency or rubberstamp subservience, and run everything from Washington, a la Hitler and Stalin.

"Dulled by an overdose of POLITICAL SPOILS," he said, "it was easy to put over the Third Term nomination blitzkrieg on the fat, lazy and impotent Democratic party."

"Unfortunately, too, the Republican party had sunk to a new low ebb. It had neither program, purpose, nor leadership."

"FOR EIGHT YEARS IT HAD BEEN WANDERING ALL OVER THE LOT, bewildered and punch drunk, with a 'ME, TOO' GRIN ON ITS FACE."

"In its dazed dotage it was easy for the Wall St. barefoot boy from Indiana, registered in New York as a Democrat and a Tammanyite, to stampee the Republican convention."

"Now a fourth term is accepted as a matter of course by the once great and powerful Democratic party. One man control has reduced it to hopeless impotency. It no longer has the inclination or will to resist those who would rape it."

This great Senator denies that America is "at the crossroads". He says we have passed the crossroads and are advancing steadily downward toward tyranny and despotism.

The question in 1944 for the American people is whether we shall retrace our steps and get back on the road toward real Americanism.

"History," says he, "will name the Fourth Term, if it ever materializes, as the 'term of DEFEAT AND FRUSTRATION.'"

God bless you, Senator Johnson! You have a great name, to begin with.

It is said in New York, when a suspicious fire is investigated, the property owner's name never ends in "SON".

THE POWER OF LOVE

"Love is the only bow on life's dark cloud. It is the morning and the evening star". It beams upon the cradle and sheds its radiance upon the quiet tomb.

"God is love," said Christ, thus defining the Great Spirit of the Universe as the "love principle".

And—"Thou shalt love the Lord, thy God, with all thy heart, soul and mind". Wherefore thou shouldst love, Love, and thereupon thou wouldst "LOVE THY NEIGHBOR AS THYSELF".

Only through KINDNESS is love made visible. Kindness is the offspring, the product of love. KINDNESS IS LOVE IN ACTION!

We cannot see love, but we can see its offspring—kindness.

If all men were loving, there would be only kindness in the world, and there would be no cruelty, no injustice, no greed, no thievery, no crime, no war.

KINDNESS IS ABSOLUTELY THE GREAT-EST VIRTUE, the highest good. It represents the farthest reach of evolution.

Cruelty is its opposite—the lowest and meanest trait in animal life.

Next to kindness is intelligence, and great as we admire human intelligence, we must place it second to kindness, for, as Emerson said, "Character is superior to intellect".

Fortunately kindness tends to go with intelligence.

The dog, by man's evolutionary selection of the kindly to mate with the kindly, has become far kinder than his cousin, the wolf, and he has more brains.

The most loving of all dogs could distinguish 500 words, and he died of a broken heart when his master left him.

While human beings all belong to one great family, their racial stocks vary widely in evolution. Some groups are inherently far kinder than other groups, and many are downright cruel and brutal.

The problem of the great race is to select for survival the kindest and best, and bring pressure to eliminate the cruel, the unkind, the disloyal, the greedy, the anti-social and the brutal, but always remembering that all races, even such as the Africans and the Nipponese, have among themselves many noble and kindly spirits.

MATURE FATHERS & GENIUS

Redfield of Chicago (read him in the public library) showed that of the 600 names in the Encyclopedia Britannica who were most eminent, more than 500 were born of mature, even aged, fathers, mated to young mothers.

From this study he evolved his theory that as a man grew older his brain power increased and he tended to transmit some of this increased brain power to his offspring. Result—genius.

Well, the statistics are indisputable, whatever your conclusion.

Maybe selection had as much to do with it as anything. If a woman picks a young husband, she has to guess what he is to become; when she picks a mature man, she knows what she is getting; and it takes a smart young woman to admire a mature man—of genius or at least higher intelligence.

Redfield pointed to the fact that the fathers of an overwhelming majority of the world's geniuses, men like the dads of Edison, Franklin, Darwin, Confucius and F. D. Roosevelt were fifty or sixty or older when their gifted sons were born. George Washington's father was almost as old. But Napoleon, he said, was warlike, because born of a too-young father—only thirty-eight!

Of the 600 greatest names, he found not one born of a father as young as twenty-six! Still, there have been quite a number of able, but less distinguished persons, who were born of fathers in their twenties.

'RELIGIOUS' PROGRAMS TABOO ON KFSD

Not very long ago I went up to the studios of radio station KFSD and asked for the manager. A young man by the name of Marion R. Harris introduced himself. He did not know who I was, he had been here only a few weeks. So I gave him a detailed outline. I explained why KGB and KFMB dared not let me speak over their facilities. He listened attentively and said that he would have to discuss the matter with Tom Sharp, the owner. I gave him a few copies of THE BROOM's recent issues, to make sure he appreciated just who I was and what I am doing.

After a week, or so, I called on him again. He reported that Tom Sharp did not intend to deprive me of the use of his station, it being here for public convenience and service. Sharp had called up their lawyer who advised that I write 12 scripts for 12 consecutive broadcasts, which they were to peruse and see what I intended to do. I told Marion that 12 was out of the question. It takes work. So

"LET US HEW TO THE LINE — —"

Dear Mr. de Aryan: In my 30 years practice of law in Detroit, Michigan, much of it given to trial work in state and Federal Courts, I never yet made an oral or a written statement that I would not back up and stand behind any place or anytime.

Therefore you are at liberty to use any letter of mine or any printed statement when you may desire.

Let us hew to the line, and the chips fall where they may, but let us always remember to use charity and to deal always in things specific.

You are at liberty to quote from my column so long as you acknowledge the source. I do not attack any race as a race, but I limit my criticism to specific individuals in specific matters that seem to me to deserve notice and criticism.

It is very unwise and also unjust to single out a race and attribute all defects to them, but in my judgment the Jew has brought on himself censure because so many of his race are found to be doing wrong or associated with subversive activities.

The Jew must blame the deeds of his own race for the prejudice that unfortunately is growing against him in the United States, and getting worse.

He has overplayed his hand here.

Yours sincerely,
 CLARENCE P. MILLIGAN.

The Morning World-Herald of Omaha, issue of March 14:

"Air mail postage is now 6 cents per ounce. The new bill will raise it to 8 cents per ounce. But air mail postage doesn't necessarily provide air mail service, as any one who use "air mail" well realizes. How much "air mail" actually goes by plane, we don't know. So far as we are aware, the postoffice has released no figures on the subject . . . "air mail" from San Francisco or New York may be delivered here in Omaha in less than 24 hours, or it may spend three or four days en route.

"The government—the same government—puts people in jail for accepting money under false pretenses."

HAVEN IN U. S. ASKED FOR JEWS

WASHINGTON—Rep. Dickstein (D-NY) suggested America lower all immigration bars to Jewish refugees from Nazi Europe as long as Britain forbids their entry into Palestine.

The empire plans to shut off free migration into Palestine March 31. The senate has adopted a resolution urging that this ban be lifted, and the house foreign affairs committee this week voted to table the proposal because military authorities, bearing in mind the attitude of the Arabs, opposed any stand on that subject now.

Dickstein said he had not yet decided whether he would ask a discharge petition to force the resolution from the foreign committee, but that he might.

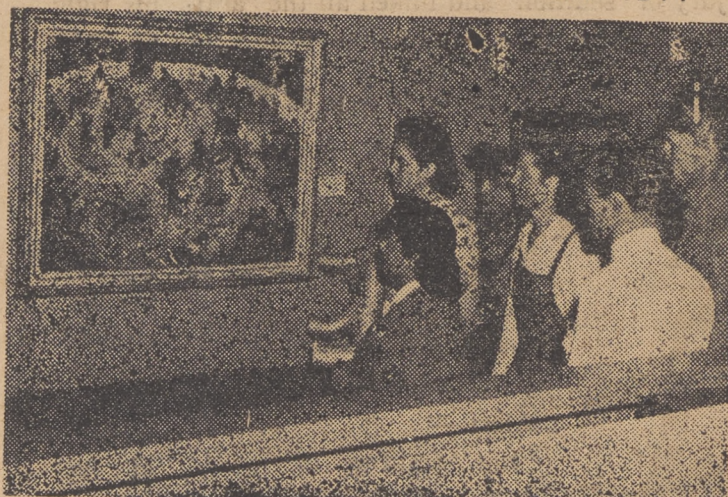

In the meantime, he said, he may demand action by the house on his bill that would permit the European refugees to enter the United States.

"They should be allowed to come here until six months after the war ends," he said, "and then we can go into the problem of what should be done."

OLIVES
 GIFFORD'S California Olives.

I wrote 3. Recently I called for the results. Marion was sorry, but said he: "We don't accept religious broadcasts. Your stuff is very hot." "What do you mean, hot?" "You are skating on very thin ice. You are dealing with HUMAN UNFOLDMENT on a religious basis and this station is turning down all religious broadcasts." So that is that. In the near future we shall present the highlights from the prepared scripts that you may see what is barred from the air because it is "religious". President Roosevelt said that what the world needs is a religious awakening. I am quite sure he is right, beginning with number One.

Onward Christian Soldiers

What the world is learning today is OBEDIENCE.

Those who don't obey God, the Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, the U. S. Constitution, but wilfully break them all and do as they please, finally come to the place where they must obey, where they must take their lives into their hands and risk everything they are and have.

The seed that is to bear fruit must go down into its own grave, burst its circumference and take new roots in the damp, dark soil of LIFE before it stretches forth its stem into the SUNLIGHT and sees a new world.

We who are afraid to descend into obscurity, into the dark recesses of uncertainty and risk our lives and possessions for the ideals we preach to others, are finally drafted and enlisted to risk our lives to kill and maim others, and be killed and maimed. This is the LAW that works inexorably in reverse when we refuse to exercise our powers and talents progressively.

The Christian who enlists in the Lord's service must undergo the selfsame trials as the soldier on the Jap front and he takes the same risks of being overpowered and kept in prison. Those who have drifted with, or like Rickenbacher on a weak life raft, for days seeing nothing but unlimited ocean and its waves, turned to God for consolation. And when they reach God the question arises why did they not risk their lives in the service of the Lord to obey His commandments and bring His Kingdom to earth? This is the question everybody has to face who approaches the Throne of the Almighty. What account do you give of your life?

The Christian who chooses to risk his life, his freedom, his possessions, to serve the Lord has the advantage on the military soldier; he kept his oath of loyalty to God. The soldier broke the Ten Commandments, the Christian risked his life in keeping them.

Every soul reaching the Throne of the Almighty who fought bravely and obediently in this war or any other war, executing the orders given him by his commanding officers, will receive these instructions:

"Rest yourself a while and recover the poise of your soul; then go back to earth and AS YOU RISKED YOUR LIFE to execute the commandments of your military superiors, so risk your life to obey MY COMMANDMENTS."

In the economy of the universe even wars serve a useful purpose. All of life is a training. We can train ourselves for the service of the Lord directly, by militantly & positively placing HIM, today, ABOVE all other powers that be and obey HIM First; or we may place Him last and follow the general trend of the world and learn obedience the hard way, paying to the last farthing for our distrust of God's Supreme Wisdom, embodied in His Commandments.

We don't agree at all with the attitude of Jehovah's Witnesses who refuse to take part in the political government of the nations they find themselves as residents. Our civil and political duties cannot be liquidated by refusal to do our share. One has to positively shoulder his responsibility of civil government or else one loses his sovereignty of decision and self-government. When each and everyone of us has learned his lesson, that God rules supreme, and that in obedience to Him we must conduct ourselves as good neighbors toward one another, then HIS RULE will materialize here on earth and Peace and Good Will will reign supreme.

The Sin Against the Holy Ghost

As long as there is war I shall continue to bring out the things that make for war. War is HELL! God never planned that we should have war. God never inspired anybody to go to war. God does not want the death even of a sinner. Thus war is the violation of God's commandments.

I shall continue to expose those who come to us with the name of God on their lips, while preaching war aims. God has no war aims. All of God's aims are peace aims, LOVE and LIVE, not murder and destroy, cripple and double-cross. When men come to the end of their wits, they resort to murder instead of Divine Faith, that's their crime.

People who wish to uphold war and war aims are at liberty to do so in their own name. When a nation wants war, when a man wants war, when a ruler leads to war, then that is NOT a result of God's inspiration. Let each and everyone who makes war realize that they are doing it on their own responsibility.

When I was dazed through the fact of our entry into the war; when in addition to it I was arrested and charged with the self-same crime as the blessed Saviour, namely inciting to mutiny, while my only concern is the welfare of the people in this, my adopted, nation and country; when under this double wound I was seeking a friendly heart that would understand my true aims, a young woman came and represented herself to stand for the selfsame principles of the Christ and asked me to trust her.

No sooner did I trust her than she insisted that I follow her in placing the Allied war aims above the Christ teachings. This attitude is so typical of the modern Pharisaic attitude of churches, that it stung me to the depth of my soul and spirit. It is a challenge I cannot ignore. The woman called me "disloyal to our government" because I don't follow the President blindly. All who trust the church in the name of the Christ, and then in the name of Christ are asked to support the war, are experiencing the same shock, if they are Christians. For in the name of the Christ war is forbidden. War results from desperation, is not a work of Divine Providence. War cannot be waged in the name of the Christ. This must be brought out again, and again, and again. The soul that looks to the Christ expects infinite compassion and a wisdom that makes war unnecessary. When the soul, in expectation of this wonderful LOVE opens up wide its heart to receive it, but instead receives the poison of war at the hands of one who asked for entry in the name of the Christ, then a great spiritual crime has been committed. Let those who look upon war as a necessity come out in their own name, not in the name of the Christ.

The "Christian Science" organization, and the Monitor committed the unpardonable sin against the Holy Ghost.

Below are the expressions of others who, like myself, revolt at the notion that the church should be used to support war in violation of divine injunction to the contrary. One may note the date on which the letter was written to the "BOARD". It is not a "seditious" letter, no more intention of sedition than there was in Jesus when he "told Satan, 'get thee behind me'", since the Master was not going to forsake His Father for the sake of worldly imperialism. This letter is wrung out of the souls of people who take their religion seriously.

There are millions in America who realize the value of honest conviction, of religious fidelity.

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Gentlemen:

For a dozen years and more, my family and I have read the Christian Science Monitor. During that time we appreciated the sane outlook of this newspaper, and its honest and apparently unprejudiced presentation of National and International affairs.

Since the outbreak of the current European War, however, we find that the Monitor has undergone a complete and radical change.

Now, instead of being a champion of sanity, reason and brotherly love, whose object was "to harm no one, but to bless all mankind", it has become, as my husband says, "merely an agent for British propaganda".

Therefore, under its present set-up and editorial policy, I cannot read nor support the Monitor, for the following reasons:

(a) It is un-American. While I appreciate the fact that the Monitor purports to be, and is, an international newspaper, yet while living and working in the United States of America, surely its publishers owe some degree of loyalty to this country. WE ARE NOT AT WAR. AND WE

ARE NOT A PART OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE.

(b) It is un-Christian. For, while paying lip service to the teachings of the meek and mighty Prince of Peace, the Monitor practically advises us to wink at such "appeasement and retroactive preachments" and urges us frantically to "take the sword", to hate, and curse, and kill.

(c) It is anti-Christian Science. Like the established Churches, in all lands, in every age, the leaders of the C. S. movement are betraying their Cause and their followers. They are handing out the stones of Prejudice and Nationalism and conservation, while the people are begging for the healing loaves of compassion, love and understanding. They are throwing away their golden opportunity to take their stand for Principle, and to challenge the mesmerism of fear and hatred engulfing the human race. (Perhaps never again will you have such an opportunity.) They are beating the war drums as loudly, and, apparently moved by insensate fear, as desperately as ever did the princes of the established church in any country. They are even asking us to swallow that particularly hard and unappetizing stone, i. e. that this is a holy war, a war to establish, somewhere in the nebulous future, a beautiful and Utopian Peace. Now, to even the merest beginner in the study of history, this must seem ridiculously fatuous and puerile. For he knows that wars are ALWAYS fought for economic reasons, for greed, for love of or the alleged necessity for expansion and conquest. No intelligent student of the European situation can honestly believe Britain is the white-winged emissary of Peace and brotherly love to the World; that Britain, whose hands are red with the most unspeakable crimes of ruthless conquest and cruel subjugation of defenseless peoples; that Britain that butchered the Boers for greed of gold and diamonds; that Britain that collaborates with their decadent national leaders to subjugate and enslave the peoples of India; that Britain that, in order to reduce the natives to their proper state of abject slavery, quelled the Sepoy rebellion by actually shooting from the cannons' mouths the native soldier boys, while the native civilian population was forced to look on. (No wonder that in primitive lands "civilized" by British, the native shudders and turns pale when he sees a white man.) That Britain, whose leader, Winston Churchill, fought AGAINST us in the Spanish American War, not because, as he said, he was interested in which side won but "for the love of adventure and the thrill of killing". That Britain who, but for the intrepid courage and daring of our own Revolutionary ancestors, would still be our tyrannical ruler. That very Britain who, for 21 years from Versailles till '39, was undisputed mistress of the whole world, and who in that 21 years, managed by her stupid blundering to bring about this present war. During that 21 years, she followed, consistently, her policy of "dividing and ruling". She played "both ends against the middle" always and solely for her own selfish interest, with the result that she has, by actual count, betrayed every nation that trusted her and that looked to her for help and guidance.

Now, in spite of this unparalleled record for duplicity and betrayal, our National Administration has virtually surrendered our country to Great (?) Britain without a single shot being fired. They have, like cringing courtiers scurrying royal favor, handed over all that our forefathers wrested FROM Great Britain, all that we, heretofore, held to be worth holding.

Assuredly we shall not have it back in our lifetime. (Just watch the Churchills and/or his successors put us in our proper place when this debacle is over, and they have no further use for us—until the next time the chestnuts are scorching.)

Now, I believe that the Managers of the C. S. Pub. Soc. know all this just as well or better than I do. Like the Emperor in the fairy story, they know all this. Yet they, too, join in the universal ballyhoo, crying "The procession must go on". Because no one has the moral courage to say "Stop! We're on the wrong road. Let's go back, while there is yet time."

And how you have betrayed your Leader.

But we won't go into that. For it would be sacrilege to mention, in the same breath, her who said "The heart and soul of Christian Science is love", with you who are DEMANDING that our precious boys be hurled into the white hot Moloch of Imperialism.

And so again I protest your position as being un-American, unpatriotic, and un-Christian. And I hereby sever my connection with your movement, and order that my subscription to all your periodicals be stopped immediately.

Now, I have nothing left but God. But He is still my God—God who in love, always, and not a god of wrath or vengeance or partiality. In Him will I trust.

FAYE CLARK COLLIER,
Lawco Lake, July 11, 1941.

It is a matter of sorrowful regret, not only to followers of Mary Baker Eddy, but to all who have appreciated and profited from her great newspaper, to have the editorial policy of this paper perverted to the use of warmongers.

Mrs. Eddy said "If you want to find me, look to my writings". We cannot even wish that she were here to set again the course of the great newspaper, for we have her word, plain and simple in the rule for motives and acts "Neither animosity nor mere personal attachment should impel the motives or acts of members of the Mother Church". That rule alone has carried the "Monitor" to its high place, because it is in harmony with its purpose "To injure none, to help all".

Mrs. Eddy's stand against war is on the same principle as her stand against disease. There is no other ground.

What a mighty blow the "Monitor" could have struck against the power of the evil one, if it had been directed by the chart of Christian Science. For the last year I have hoped that this mesmerism would lift. The articles inveighing against Colonel Lindberg were hard to accept. But the publisher's open letter lauding Willkie, comparing his treachery to Douglas' attitude toward Lincoln, is almost dishonest. Smearing a patriot and praising a traitor is all the more regrettable when done under the "livery of Heaven". That, says Mrs. Eddy, is the crime unpardonable.

Sorrowfully,
LYRL CLARK VAN HYNING.

Clergyman Quits In Service Flag Row With Parish

BRIDGEPORT, Conn.—A 38-year-old clergyman who says that service flags have no place in church auditoriums, where the only symbols "ought to be Christian symbols", will quit his parish here after the Easter service because his congregation doesn't agree with him.

Until then the issue remains in abeyance at the downtown First Universalist church, whose 100 families have sent 10 men to the armed services, one of whom will not return.

To the Rev. Emerson S. Schwenk, who came here in 1940 from Saugus, Mass., the matter is simple. "No symbol, whether of war or anything else, has a place in the church other than the symbol of Christianity", he said.

SCIENCE CHURCH SUBJECT 'MATTER'

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Matter is neither created by Mind nor for the manifestation and support of Mind . . . In proportion as the belief disappears that life and intelligence are in or of matter, the immortal facts of being are seen, and their only idea or intelligence is in God."

PEACE BY ARBITRATION

Pres. Grant in 1871 and President Cleveland in 1897 made England submit disputes by arbitration when England did not want to. It shouldn't be difficult to get a line-up of nations that are willing to keep their written promises to the Kellogg Peace Pact. This would leave the remainder in a hot spot and would be ample evidence that they want war and no arbitration.

Surely the small nations want to be good, want arbitration, no war, want to keep their written promises to U. S. A., do not want to be dead beats and chisellers or frauds. Wilson was fooled by England's League of Nations plan which gave England the lion's share of power so England could dominate as many nations as possible.

Sen. Ball, Burton, Hatch, Hill plan is another League of Nations. Who gave England the right to rule the U. S. A.? There can always be an England, but she does not need to rule the world to have "Justice for all".

Only God is wise enough, just enough and merciful enough. We must obey God rather than men. God's ten laws must rule the world to have "Peace on earth and good will toward men". Jer. 31: 33, 34.

SAVING BRITISHERS

NEW YORK—In addition to the known reluctance of our generals to sacrifice lives by not being fully prepared for an invasion, a British financier confided to Wall Street friends: "We in England have delayed the opening of a second front because we fear Russia—not the Soviet Union of today but what it will be 25 years from now."

"Its population now is 170,000,000; in 1969 it will be close to 250,000,000. In the battles of World War I the British Isles alone had 750,000 men killed. We cannot suffer a similar loss in this war and survive as a first-class power. Only 48,000,000 people live in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

"We are determined to help defeat Japan but we do not want to spill blood in the Pacific & see the fruits of victory reaped by China which some day might menace Australia and other British possessions." —Albert E. Leman.

Stand by the Moralities -- At Home

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

We like your article on "White Supremacy" by W. Adams & "Freedom of the Press" and "Read & Weep". This recalls Mr. McCormick's visit to New Orleans; he addressed a Business Club at Luncheon & reminded hearers that the late Sen. Huey Long said: "Fascism will come but it will be called something else". Of course that statement of the Col. was not sent out by the A. P. Truisms are not aired, yet we hear much of Free-Press.

Millions have their opinion as to why Pearl Harbor, "the more horror, the quickest way to war-hysteria", but it couldn't have happened before election day of 1941. Selah! We look for the unusual as usual in this year of Our Lord and Presidential election. We'd like the men scheduled for "court-martial" to have their day & the people & Press to give Congress another nudge in the right direction & to make them realize that: "Now, is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party", & hope there'll not be any assassinations or howling coyotes staticing the air-lanes with "We want—" The Phila. stampede & Chicago sewers stick in our memories.

Sen. Theo. Bilbo of Miss., preached on "Colonization in Africa of the Negro", he got exactly what Long got with his magnificent S O W program. Yet, we hear praise from men of Honest Abe's "unfinished Symphony". Well, why not go on where Lincoln stopped? At Gettysburg "It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced." Lincoln meant to colonize the negro, not in U. S. A., for he believed in "White Supremacy", in time exploiters would take hold, make trouble as they are now doing with foreignisms. Lincoln saw & sought to stamp out these roots of evil before the fruition. Unfinished work has borne its harvest. Lincoln would have helped reconstruction in Dixieland. He indeed would have employed the humane program S O W. Share Our Wealth, Share Our Work, Share our Wardship. Lincoln's great heart beat for all suffering humanity & humor under stress like unto Long's songs are mingled with our heart strings. Both knew they were marked men, neither broke a promise, yet died martyrs to High-Idealism. Neither could have lived other than free & did not surrender their inalienable rights.

Long revelled in his birthright & gave unto La., its first form of Dem. Government a free ballot. Both left unfinished work but this will not detract any from their glorious fight for freedom. We know today how well "they knew" & dared to speak. Oh! for just a semblance of Lincolnesse & Longism leadership in this crisis. Like Andy Jackson also the martyred Long despised hypocrisy, and dangerous foreign entanglements. War-debts disgusted him, the looming tragedy of another War all but madened him, but he put his finger on the right element. Such fighters truly loved Freedom, with a passion, they could not have lived regimented, slaves. They were leaders in every sense of the word.

There always will be the fearless, advancing minority, America's hope, the invincible few, with moral-courage to dare for what they believe to be truth & right. Men who wish to control other men's destinies should have some perception of how broad, deep & complicated life is. They should have a measure of their own capabilities. To believe in one who had deceived was a form of immorality to Huey Long. And these Jackson Day orators should emulate their hero Andy Jackson, who believed in the things he did. God counts it no crime to be true to one's highest life. You write of Adams, Paine, Franklin, also Honest Abe. They were simply faithful to themselves. We need primarily men banded together in a higher life, living in fact, brave men free, saved & sanctified by Truth, who work with the law for the glory of God & man, to save society, outlaw the brutal-conflict born of greed, ambition. Not mongers but men who strive to make life easier for their brothers and the moral side of life, stronger.

The Spirit of God confines itself to no special groups, race or nation. He died for all. Christian & Heathen, Jew and Gentile. We must accept Him & the living Church.

The distinct, worth-hearing and inspirational voice is: "Conscience", the king of creeds. Strong characters, men of conviction seek solitude for strength and always come from their meditations with added wisdom, a deeper love for right and higher resolves. In the great silences, ideas are born, plans formulated that help transform earth & society. Refreshed souls have a personal influence, they are not carried away by oratory. The exercise of reason enables to see the jigger behind the mask & tracks him to his boss. Men of character strive for a fellowship of free and independent minds, for general progress, the mighty machine goes on or it stops, by the support or lack of it, respectively.

There is no unfathomed Reality to the understanding minds of those who will save us. Souls refreshed by meditation, we need both Solitude and soliloquy. Are we just, can we win? Going along with souls lost by sophistry or passions which turn, cause men to turn their backs on the moralities? Only the moralities can check the monster now rampant. It can't happen here, eh? Well, we have the sick (soul & body) the strays, shadow births, baffled minds, bankruptcy, strikes & depressions, can we accept the Universe? The Spirit in man is his moral and rational nature. The estimate a man places upon his conduct, determines his character, the deeds reveal the man, not the things he speaks on. Loss of confidence in leaders is radical, few citizens will go on battling & dying when this nerve is severed. Collective humanity will perish. Man follows his mind, where desires wreck barriers there is the man as long as he holds aloft the Light, his fidelity leads others, his affluence enriches the world.

No one is indispensable, no group has the inflexible governing motive, the staidness to truth, impulses ebb and flow. To err is human, to conform to error is something else. We need distinct and complete changes thru the changes of time. States-ship like Religion are not mere labels, the contents are counted as elements of character, not merely a declaration but a life for the State & one for the Church. Intense and earnest & destined for all time, as the work carried on by our forefathers in the face of extreme hardship and tragedy.

The struggle goes on, again Lincoln asks: "Shall we shrink from the necessary means to maintain our free government which our forefathers employed to establish it and our own fathers have already employed again to maintain it?" The least we of this generation must do for the next, is: saving the republic, by eradicating corruption wherever found. Bad-blood cannot make plasma, the same goes for law-makers, figuratively. Enforcement of the moral-law has & can withstand the shocks of time and chicanery for it is as changeless as gravity. Instead of the State meddling with the Church, hurling Dictatorisms and Artificialities, it should be the other way 'round for the Church speaks without partisanship.

Attempts to cheapen individualism in theory and destroy it in practice cannot succeed, it is the ancient assault upon human-freedom. Born free, the gospel has kept us free, whenever freedom is attacked, the Church is on the spot, unbelievers for the Isms, believers for the Christ. The Founding Fathers felt the lash, the American Revolution failed for the Oppressors, Jefferson's forms, & Lincoln's proclamation are sound. The Church survives: "Upon this rock I shall build my Church and the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it".

The hours left to us always are few, we must refresh our souls, the enemy is on the march, a Church Militant spreads its banner to the skies. Loyalty to God, without formalisms, wild-oratory and decorations but, standing for the principles for which He lived and died; not celebrating the Crucified, but in doing His Will and sanctifying the triumph of Death over Evil. Cherishing the imperishable things of the Spirit, endeavoring to make their qualities and motives part of our own being. When Religion is harrassed, we know that Freedom is threatened, we must rally to the Symbol of "The Old Rugged Cross", speak out the truth, making our gospel heard. As we mature we enrich our souls and in our sessions with self, clear out much rubble. The treasures we struggled for grow less by possession of same, we loosen our grip and take note of simple things, we see the need of love and virtue, courage and decision; we have profited by the common experience which is the lot of those whose lives have been a steady growth instead of a series of hysteria. We learn, that in the long conflict God and Truth are Eternal.

The tribeists that turn His beautiful creation into a shambles are hard to handle for having not been humanized. They cannot understand why The Commandments & Isms cannot merge, their ignorance, of course is: cultivated indifference, since "the Devil quotes Scripture", but we shall keep our moral freedom, if it costs our "physical freedom". Throttled press and radio, scraping he bottom to feed the War-machine and federal-ballot on the tap is so we grasp the fundamental idea: Too many blackbirds in the pie, we cannot get it, we are nauseated, change the cook, hence the diet.

Unless we believe as Honest Abe, Isolationist Jackson, Jefferson and not forgetting Long who thought "the word of a deceiver should be of no further record", then we will have the flames of War licking our home-front. We have homes to reform, help the sick & save the unbalanced, why in Heaven's name not one Institution to save ourselves from Usurpers of our lands?

BERTHE PAQUET.

Roland C. Casad - Candidate for United States Senator

To the People of California, Greetings:

I am asking for your support and your votes in my race for the nomination for the office of United States Senator at the primary election to be held May 16th.

Being a believer in the philosophy, that it is profitable to give value received in all things, it shall be my purpose in case I am fortunate enough to be elected, to do far more for you as voters than you will have done for me in electing me to this high office.

Never since the founding of our great country has there been such a need for men of understanding and the will to do, as now.

Our way out of trouble is simple. It should be obvious to all that we must desist from doing the things that got us into trouble and keep us there. I am not speaking specifically of this war for we were very much in trouble before this war reached an active combat state. Furthermore, we are likely to be in a lot of trouble, even though this war should end quickly, unless we pursue different courses in the future from what we have done in the past.

I feel certain that we can be a sovereign nation through our congress if and when the congress follows the constitution, and really makes the laws. The constitution provides that congress shall be the law making body of our country. Certainly the framers of our constitution never intended that we should be governed by edicts and bureaus rather than by laws.

Our country has been in a bad way for many years and the people in trying to remedy the bad situation have changed the party in power in Washington, D. C., from Republican to Democrat and back again with the hopes for some relief. In the course of these troubles, when things were very bad, people, it would seem, in making a change of the party in power in Washington, had actually jumped from the frying pan into the fire, so to speak.

The Republicans and Democrats in an endeavor to remedy the bad situation each seemed to deal with the effects rather than the causes that produced the bad effects. Had either party removed the causes of these bad effects, they could have retained the respect and admiration of the voters of America.

One of these Parties was content to deal with the effects in order to work out the solution of our troubles, the other Party evidently came to the conclusion that the troubles could not be worked out in our Country under our Constitution as it was organized and proceeded to change the whole setup by giving us a country of edicts and bureaus. Until one had heard from the bureau chief that day, he would not know what the law or edict was for the day.

The fact remains that there are many fine and well intentioned people in both the Republican and Democratic parties now and have been in all times past. However, it was impossible for either party in the past or present, nor will it be possible for either party in the future, to iron out our difficulties unless we exchange our vicious money system for a righteous one.

I have battled with everything at my command against our unjust money system since just a mere boy.

Before we can solve intelligently one of our difficult social or economic problems, we must first adopt a new money and tax system. I am therefore making my race for the United States Senate on these primary planks, namely: a new money and tax system and an old age pension worthy of the name for all citizens fifty years of age and over.

With an abundance of manufactured products, plus an abundance of crops produced from the soil, together with a righteous money system that I hope will soon be adopted, the people of our country will really be able to live for the first time and not just exist as millions of them have had to do in the past.

Now as for what we can best do for the people of the rest of the world, I would suggest that we set them an example that they would wish to emulate. What country would want to follow another that had endless resources of most all kinds but still many of its people were hungry in the midst of plenty, where people would have to stand in line in the hot sun or rain for hours waiting for a bread or work ticket, a country where many people had no sheets on their beds or meat in their kitchen larder and where this certain country in answer to the cries of these people for food and clothing ordered the cotton ploughed under and the meat animals destroyed?

We shall be measured by the people of other nations in accordance with our progress.

Respectfully submitted, ROLAND C. CASAD.

Dear Kosti:

Please find enclosed a dime, for which kindly send me copy of March 27th issue of The Broom.

The article by Mr. Troy was kindly and temperate. My motive in writing, has, at all times, been to do and provoke good. I shall make no reply to Mr. Troy, since at my age, one should avoid controversy.

Regards, ERNEST CRUTCHER.

Truth Not Copyrighted: "Mary Baker Eddy"

Kosti dear:

You will know that I do not forget, of course, but there is too much to do! Thank you for all you are doing, it is just great that we have you to fight for us who are not so wise nor able.

I read with much interest the letter of Mrs. Van Hyning on C. S., for I, too, have watched with concern the corruption of what was intended to be a worthwhile work. However, if some of the reports are true, the beginning of that so-called Science held the very seeds of its own corruption. After all, we do bring about what we cause to be and it comes back with a vengeance sometimes. With it all, Mrs. Eddy did a fine job of smashing some of the old religious superstitions and mind- or mental- fixations with which humanity has been saddled for centuries of time. I am grateful to her for that and glad, too, that the truth is coming to light, even if it can't be labeled "Mary Baker Eddy".

Enclosed is a dollar to apply on the Brooms. They are fine quality and sweep up a lot of misunderstandings and filth. Many, many thanks. Will we be seeing you soon?

Enclosing a Forum which you may not have seen. Are you still helping our "girls and boys" with their problems? Will Mr. Wirin co-operate with you?

Love from — — — and me, — — — H.

NO MOHAMMEDAN NATION HAS JOINED WAR, SPEAKER SAYS

LOS ANGELES— Not a single Mohammedan nation has joined in this war, Dr. H. R. Phelps told the University club at its weekly luncheon. Dr. Phelps, who has lived in India most of his life, described conditions in India and said that the attitude of Mohammedans was baffling to most persons.

"While it is true that individual Mohammedans are fighting in some of the armies, Mohammedan nations as such are not at war," Dr. Phelps said.

"There have been conferences among Mohammedan leaders of different sects and it would be interesting to know what they talked about. a pan-Islamic movement and a holy war have been advocated, but thus far failed."

Dear Mr. Aryan:

I received the first issue on my subscription to the Broom, and I found the contents most interesting.

That story on Henry Klein and his defense of you and your friends was very good. This is an example of the suppression we are receiving —this story could not be found in any other newspaper. Please keep giving us news that one can't get elsewhere.
